HELPFUL INFORMATION

We expect a huge volume of calls for the first few days, so you can expect delays. If your trip to Block Island does not begin on a Saturday or Sunday and is before June 27th, 2020 and after September 7th, 2020 it is not imperative that you call the first day; you might consider calling the following week. Desirable dates and times will still be available.

Use this form to have your information ready when you call the reservation office to book your 2020 reservations. It will help us book your reservations quickly and correctly.
